Playing games

- Which games did you use to play when you were little?
- How often do you do crosswords and other puzzles?
- Are there any games you like to play when you are alone?
- What do you think about computer games?

C: (Responds.)

I: (Interlocutor makes brief responses and/or comments.)

I: Thank you.

PART 2 (3 minutes)

I: Now, Part Two. We are going to role-play some situations. I want you to start or respond.
First situation (choose one situation from A).

A

- I'm a teacher visiting your school. I start.
Could you tell me where I can find the Director's office please?
- We're at a science museum. I start.
We've got about an hour. What shall we look at first?
- I am a passenger on the same train as you. I start.
I've got lots of heavy luggage. What can I do?
- We're classmates. I start.
I have to miss tomorrow's lesson. Can you explain to the teacher for me?

C: (Responds.)

I: (Role-play the situation with the candidate – approximately two turns each.)

I: Second situation (choose one situation from B).

B

- I'm a waiter in a café. You are not happy with the food I've given you. You start.
- I'm your friend. I've been waiting for you for twenty minutes. You start.
- You're behind me in a queue at a shop. You have one thing in your basket, and you're in a hurry. You start.
- You're at the dentist's. You want to make an appointment. You start.

C: (Initiates.)

I: (Role-play the situation with the candidate – approximately two turns each.)

I: (Role-play a third situation from A or B if time allows.)

I: Thank you.

PART 3 (3 minutes)

I: Now, Part Three. In this part of the test we're going to discuss something together. All right?
Our class is presenting a project called 'Communicating in the 21st Century.' (Hand over candidate's task sheet.)
Let's ask and answer questions to help us decide which types of communication will still be popular in fifty years from now. I'll start.

Interlocutor's Task Sheet

I: Thank you. [Retrieve candidate's task sheet.]

I: In Part Four you are going to talk about something for one and a half minutes. Your topic is (choose topic for candidate).

Topics

A A sports event you would like to go to

B Your favourite holiday place

C Your life before you started school

I: (Hand over piece of paper and pen/pencil.) You now have thirty seconds to write some notes to help you. So your topic is (repeat topic). (Withdraw eye contact for thirty seconds. Leave recorder running.)

I: (Candidate's name), please start.

C: (Talks.)

I: (When candidate has talked for a maximum of one and a half minutes, say, 'Thank you', and then ask some follow-up questions.)

Follow-up questions

A sports event you would like to go to

- Who would you like to go to the sports event with?
- Do you prefer to watch sports live or on TV? (Why?)
- What new sport would you like to try?
- Are there any sports you really don't like watching? (Why?)

Your favourite holiday place

- What would it be like to live in that place all the time?
- Do you think that place will change in the future?
- Which other places would you like to visit?
- What kind of holiday place would you not enjoy? (Why?)

Your life before you started school

- Have you got photos from the time before you started school?
- Do you think children start school at the right age?
- How did you feel about starting school?
- What things can children learn better at home than at school?

I: Thank you. (Give candidate's name.) That is the end of the exam.
