

TEFL

Listening & Reading-Test

By Divine Training
www.divine-trainings.com

Copyright © 2024 | Powered by Divine Training
Divine Associates Registration no. 0083936

A TEFL quiz for TEFL teachers

1. If you're testing your students' comprehension of written English, you're testing their understanding of what they've just

- written
- read
- listened to

2. If a reader skims a piece of text, they

- read it fully
- read it aloud
- glance over it

3. The term "sight vocabulary" refers to common words that learners first spot and recognize when developing their

- listening skills
- writing skills
- reading skills

4. If you refer to the "context" in which a written word or phrase is found, you're referring to the parts of the text that

- precede and follow it
- emphasize it
- summarize it

5. If you're teaching phonics, you're teaching learners to read by associating certain _____ with certain sounds.

- letters and letter groupings
- words and word groupings
- texts and text groupings

6. Structured listening in which listeners confirm in their own words what they've understood is called

- guided listening
- active listening
- passive listening

7. Teaching methods, materials or technology related to listening and speaking can be described as

- audio learning
- auto-lingual
- audio lingual

8. Group reading aloud where the pace is set by the teacher is called

- choral reading
- teacher-led reading
- class reading

9. "Schema theory" is a process where learners draw from their own _____ to understand a reading.

- imagination
- background knowledge
- vocabulary lists

10. A reading strategy where learners must read silently for a certain period of time is known as U.S.S.R or _____ Sustained Silent Reading.

- Universal
- Uninterrupted
- Understanding

Answer Key

- 1. read*
- 2. glance over it*
- 3. reading skills*
- 4. precede and follow it*
- 5. letters and letter groupings*
- 6. active listening*
- 7. audio lingual*
- 8. choral reading*
- 9. background knowledge*
- 10. Uninterrupted*